The New Methodist Bishops.

The Episcopal election of the Methodist Conference of 1908 at Baltimore, is now a matter of history, and when announcement was made late Tuesday of the selection of the last bishop, very many of the delegates heaved sighs of relief. The new bishops elected are:

Rev. Dr. W. E. Anderson, of New York; Rev. Dr. J. L. Neulsen, of Berea, O.; Rev. Dr. W. A. Quayle, of Chicago; Rev. Dr. Chas. W. Smith, of Pittsburg; Rev. Dr. Wilson S. Lewis, of Sioux City, Ia.; Rev. Dr. Edwin H. Hughes, of Greencastle, Ind.; Rev. Dr. Robert McIntyre, of Los Angeles; Dr. Frank M. Bristol, of Washington.

The last named was the pastor and intimate friend and often, it is said, the adviser of the late President McKinley. The bishops-elect will be consecrated on Sunday.

Family Reunion.

There will be a family reunion of the children of Mr. Bernard Santen, of Cincinnati, at the home of his son, Henry J. Santen, in this city, on Sunday. The wife and mother of the family, Mrs. Tecla Santen, passed away only recently at her home in Cincinnati. This is the first family reunion of the children. Those who will be present are:

The aged father, Mr. Bernard Santen; Rev. Father Herman Santen, of New Richmond, O.; John and Joseph Santen, of Cincinnati; Bernard Santen, Jr., of Columbus, O.; Mrs. Louise Rave, of Walnut Hills, O., and Mrs. Joseph Nichol, of Reading, O.

The visit of Father Santen will have a two-fold significance, the occasion being the first communion Sunday of a class of forty-five boys and girls at the Church of the Annunciation in this city, among whom will be several nieces and nephews of the distinguished prelate.

Big Closing Out Sale.

Don't miss Rummans, Tucker & Co.'s Big Closing Out Sale. All dry goods, notions, etc., must go. June 1, and continues thirty days.

Another Big Damage Suit.

Through her attorney, Judge Denis Dundon, Mrs. Lillie Burbury, filed suit Wednesday in the Bourbon Circuit Court against Mrs. Nancy Shropshire in the sum of $10,000 for alleged damages to character. The petition alleges, that "on February, 1908, the defendant, did, in the presence of divers persons, falsely and maliciously speak of and concerning the plaintiff, in addressing her conversation to her husband, G. R. Burbury," and did impute to this plaintiff improper acts.

Both plaintiff and defendant are neighbors at Centerville. There are several suits of a similar nature between these parties that are now before this court, all growing out of trouble existing between Mrs. Shropshire and Mr. Burbury of several years standing. Warrants of arrest and counter warrants of arrest have been issued by the parties from time to time and it seems to be a matter of endless litigation.

The Time is Now.

Public Sale of Lots in G. G. White Addition.

The announcement of the sale on Thursday, June 4, of the residence of the late G. G. White, together with seventy choice building lots, and thirty-nine acres of rich bottom lands for gardening purposes and cow pastures which adjoins the main property, marks a new epoch in the growth and expansion of the city of Paris.

Being within a three minute walk of the fine new court house, and yet completely segregated from the noise of the business section, and apart from any avenue that leads to sections inhabited by colored people, makes the location one of the most desirable residence sections of the city. Wide streets and intersecting avenues are embraced in the diagram of allotment, and together with its charming surroundings and close proximity to the depot of the Louisville & Nashville railroad makes it an ideal place for a home. The property is approached by the extension of Houston Avenue for vehicles, while pedestrians have also the advantage of the foot bridge over Houston creek, the entire scene being one of charming beauty and picturesqueness.

The sale on June 4, will be positive, without reserve or by-bid, and everything offered will be sold for what it brings. Many attractive features have been added, including a musical concert by the Elks' band, free dinner, and the giving away of three lots, the proceeds of one to go to the seven white churches of Paris. Another lot is to be given away free to the purchasers of lots, while still another will be drawn for free by all who attend the sale who are over twenty-one years of age and register their names. This includes a special invitation to the ladies of Paris and Bourbon county.

See the whole page illustrated advertisement of the sale elsewhere in this issue.

Ex-Parisian Suicides at Grand Rapids.

The following account of the suicide of an ex Parisian is given by the Grand Rapids (Mich.) Herald:

"With two bullet wounds in his head, Michael McNamara, aged 62 years, 175 South Lafayette street, was found lying dead on a bed in his home by his wife on her return from a shopping trip yesterday afternoon. His own revolver, two chambers of which were discharged, showed that his death had been self-inflicted.

"Mrs. McNamara was prostrated by the gory scene discovery and it was some time before she recovered sufficiently to summon assistance. Coroner Hilliker was then called and arrived on the scene at about 5:30. After minute investigation the coroner decided that it was suicide and no inquest will be held.

"The first evidently, of the two shots was fired at the back of the head, the revolver being held too high for the bullet to be effective, as it plowed its way underneath the scalp, passing through the skull and shattering the bedroom window. The second shot was aimed more carefully, likewise from behind, but lower down, passing through the back of the head, death ensuing probably instantly.

"Mr. McNamara's family and friends are at a loss to ascribe any cause for this act, save possibly an attack of mental derangement. The mystery is deepened by the fact that he was a man in unusually good health for one of his years, with no financial troubles to worry him. Of commanding figure and handsome presence, he seemed to derive a keen enjoyment out of life, which makes his act all the more inexplicable.

"A portion of Wednesday he spent at Ramona with Mrs. McNamara and during the time he was exceptionally cheerful, entering into the spirit of the outing with great zest. Yesterday he did not feel well in the morning and kept to his room.

"Mr. McNamara had been a resident of Grand Rapids about two years, during which time he had lived in the home where he died. He came here from Paris, Ky., where for many years he worked as an expert machinist. He is survived by a widow, three sons and one daughter. The children are: W. F. McNamara, with the Pittsburg Steel Company, Pittsburg, Pa.; George E. McNamara, of the Conservatory of Music, Chicago; D. Clyde McNamara, traveling salesman for the Gunn Factory Company, of this city, and Mrs. W. F. Carpenter, of Millersburg, Ky. Mrs. McNamara and their son Clyde were the only members of the family in the city last evening. The others have been notified and the funeral arrangements will be made as soon as they arrive."

Bogus Reform.

One of the chief clauses of the railroad rate law passed by the last Congress was "the commodity clause" which went into effect on May 1 of this year. There has evidently been collusion between President Roosevelt, his Attorney-General, and the Interstate Commerce Commission to nullify the clause by refusing to prosecute those railroads which are openly disobeying the law. The provision that railroads after May 1 could not, without being lawbreakers own or sell commodities which they controlled, was intended especially to cover the mining and selling of coal by the so-called coal roads. That provision was added to the law in deference to the united public opinion that for the railroads to own and also transport coal was a monopoly that was undesirable and added greatly to the cost of coal to the people.

When the law was under consideration by Congress, President Roosevelt and a majority of the Republicans in Congress were insistent that the commodity clause should be added to the law. But the law is a dead letter, and has been nullified by the Executive officers of the government refusing to enforce it. Yet the Republicans claim to be reformers.

The Spurious Congress.

The Sixtieth Congress will pass into history as the Spurious Congress. It has done nothing worthy of a great representative body. In its appropriations, it has been more extravagant than any of its predecessors, and will leave the government $60,000,000 in arrears on the first day of July next, and $160,000,000 in arrears on July 1, 1909, so that money will have to be borrowed for running expenses. It has refused to modify the tariff even on wood pulp and print paper. It has enacted currency legislation of the worst possible type, legislation not in favor of the interests of the people at large, but of Wall Street.

It has upheld the President in his wild and dangerous assertion of the supremacy of the military over the civil power. Its sins of commission and its sins of omission are equally flagrant, because both are as bad as possible. Its early adjournment should be welcomed by the American people. The only defect in our Constitution is that it requires this Congress to meet again before its dissolution.

Wall Street Supports Taft.

There may be some doubt about how great the revolt of Labor will be against Secretary Taft, but that Wall Street interests will warmly support him with its money and votes seem certain. That representative Wall Street banker, Jacob H. Schiff, the partner of that "malefactor of great wealth," Mr. Harriman, has accepted the Vice Presidency of the Taft organization of the State of New York. He declared, "that with a rigid insistence for due and proper regard of the law, all classes of our citizens will, with Mr. Taft as President, become readily convinced that every legitimate interest will be safe in the hands of their Chief Executive."

From this we may assume that Mr. Taft will receive the united support of the Wall Street influence, and that bankers and railroad managers will vie with each other in filling the "dough-bags" of the Republican party. The malefactors of great wealth have evidently, as Mr. Schiff says: "become very readily convinced" that they "will be safe" in the hands of Taft.

The Season Here.

This is the season of the year when the sweet girl graduates and manly boy graduates will tell us that "Beyond the Alps Lies Italy," "We Strive to Conquer," and "Work, the Secret of Success." They will find that all in life lies in the first word of the latter title—"work," and that only through faithful and conscientious performance of duties as they evolve will the pathway of life be smooth and success rendered possible. "Graduating Day" is a red-letter event in the lives of countless thousands of lads and lasses over all this broad land, and may their future careers prove as bright and rosy as is the wish of The News.

Good-Bye to the "Bucket Shop."

After September 1 it will be a felony to conduct a "bucket shop" in New York State. Gov. Hughes signed, without comment, Saturday Senator Cassidy's bill amending the penal code to that effect. The act is substantially similar to the Massachusetts law. The new law establishes a penalty of $5,000 maximum fine for a corporation, and of $1,000 maximum fine of five years' imprisonment, or both, for a person, and forfeiture of charter for a corporation upon second conviction. Transactions to be legal must contemplate a bona fide receipt or delivery of the securities or commodities dealt in.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.

An Unusual Feature.

An unusual feature developed at Glasgow, Ky., Thursday, when R. L. Chapman took out license to wed Mrs. Nonie Waddle. As is customary the County Court Clerk asked Chapman to get some one to go on his bond for the license. He returned with Bed Waddle, former husband of Mrs. Waddle, from whom he was divorced some time ago. There is probably not another case on record where the divorced husband of a woman acted as bondsman for another man to wed her.

Good for Everybody.

Mr. Norman R. Coulter, a prominent architect, at the Delbert Building, San Francisco, says: "I fully endorse all that has been said of Electric Bitters as a tonic medicine. It is good for everybody. It corrects stomach, liver and kidney disorders in a prompt and efficient manner and builds up the system." Electric bitters is the best spring medicine ever sold over a drugstore counter; as a blood purifier it is unequalled. 50 cents at Oberdorfer's drug store.

He has fitted up the office, barber shop, bar and dining room into handsome department rooms. The office, which is commodious, will be his office and general display, two large display rooms have been put in, surpassing anything of the kind in town.

The barber shop will be used exclusively for wall paper and is conveniently fitted up for that purpose. The bar is the undertaking department and nice cabinets have been put in for that purpose, the dining room will contain the bulk of the furniture, which can be shown to a good advantage. This is by far the nicest store building in town. Every kind of goods is in its own department, is kept separated from everything else. It will be some days yet before the various departments are in order though all customers can be accommodated now with what they want, as soon as all is in readiness the public will be invited to call and inspect.

—To the surprise of their many friends, Mr. Russell Powell and Miss Maude Collins, both of this place were quietly married Monday evening about 9 o'clock at Cynthiana. This came in the nature of a surprise as many of their friends did not even know they were sweethearts. They left home to attend a party near Cynthiana, and were married before going to the party. Mr. Powell is an industrious young man, salesman at the grocery of Jones Bros. Miss Collins is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Frank E. Collins, who is saleslady at the dry goods store of Corrington & Smedley. They have host of friends who extend congratulations. They returned Thursday and were received by both families, and all "kissed and made up." They were admomized never to do so again.

Worth Remembering.

A word of warning sometimes saves much trouble. It is fine of not less than $10 and not more than $100 to willfully remove shrubbery or flowers placed upon any grave or lot in an enclosed cemetery.

Plan to Spend Half Billion.

The National Rivers and Harbors Congress announced a few nights ago at a dinner in the Hotel Astor, in New York, the broad national policy of the organization under which it expects to link the internal waterways of the country and provide the agriculturists and other producers of the Middle West with a cheap means of reaching the seaboard with their products.

It calls upon Congress for an annual appropriation of $50,000,000 for ten years by which time it is expected that inland waterways will be so far improved that cargoes will have an uninterrupted transportation from say Brownsville, Texas, to the Mississippi, through canals along the coasts of Texas and Louisiana to the Mississippi; up the Mississippi through waterways to the Great Lakes, by the Erie Canal to New York City, and from this port by canal to Boston and through Raritan Canal to Delaware and Chesapeake Bays and through a coast canal to Florida. It is expected that when these waterways are improved to take products of Pittsburgh to Texas and grain from Missouri to New York without breaking bulk.

Short Fruit Crop in Bourbon.

Reports from the largest fruit growers of Bourbon county indicate a short fruit crop in the county. The only variety that will approach anything like a full crop is that of strawberries. Frank P. Bedford, one of the largest growers of fruits in the county, says that the crop of cherries, peaches, apples and pears will be much lighter than expected. Mr. Bedford said that he would have about seven bushels of cherries from three trees, and had about sixty trees that were entirely barren of fruit. The same is true of apples, peaches and pears, only a few scattering trees having any fruit at all.

Burglars Taking Lexington.

Burglars are seeming to have things their own way in Lexington. Three different stores were entered Wednesday night in that city.

Debate Between Noted Kentuckians.

Tuesday's session of the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly at Greensboro, N. C., began with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. Henry Austin, of Texas. The hearing of the case of Bennett H. Young against the Synod of Kentucky in the matter of the Central University at Danville, Ky., occupied almost the entire morning, and was not concluded when the 1:30 recess was taken. Col. Bennett H. Young representing the complainant, spoke for forty-five minutes. He was followed by Col. Thomas H. Bullitt, representing the synod, in a speech of one hour and a quarter, and then Col. Young had a rejoinder of thirty minutes.

Col. Young contended that the General Assembly had the right to rebuke the action of the Synod of Kentucky in making the Board of Trustees of Central University a self-perpetuating body. Col. Bullitt denied the authority of the assembly in the premises, upon the ground that the matter was civil and not ecclesiastical, and that the action of the Kentucky Synod is based upon authority of a charter granted by the Legislature of Kentucky. The debate between the two Kentucky Colonels was vigorous and earnest and attracted many people other than members of the assembly. At the close of his rejoinder Col. Young said:

"Christian education is at stake. I stand here as an auctioneer. How much? Carnegie bids $800,000 for three pensions. Going, going, going—$800,000 for three pensions. Going, say, will this church make the last response and cry out, gone?"

WHITE'S ADDITION!

VIEW OF RESIDENCE.

Including the handsome and costly residence of the late G. G. WHITE. Erected at a cost of $40,000. It is the most substantial and thoroughly modern up-to-date residence in the county, with every convenience and charming surroundings. The residence is three stories high, with a twelve-foot veranda around the entire structure. Two fine cisterns, basement under the entire house, with laundry, apartments for coal and kindling, and a furnace that heats the entire building. The entire lower floor, embracing large double parlors, dining room, halls, library and reception rooms, are finished in mahogany, with frescoed ceilings, and hand-carved mantels, with large French plate mirrors, that reach to the ceiling. The entire house is lighted with gas. Rooms on second and third floors are large and roomy, and finished in hard wood, with large presses, toilet and bath rooms. This home must be seen to be appreciated, in the magnitude of its construction, elegance of finish and convenience of modern equipment. The residence will be sold with a plot of beautiful lawn and facing on two fifty-foot streets.

On the same plot is the handsome brick stable erected by Mr. White at a cost of Eight Thousand Dollars. It will be sold upon the same terms as that of the residence. After each has been sold separately the two will then be sold as a whole, the best bid to be accepted.

LADIES ARE ESPECIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND SALE.

The entire addition has been plotted, with three new fifty-foot streets running parallel with the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and with three intersecting streets forty-five feet wide. Sixty-four lots each sixty feet wide, and six lots each fifty feet wide with a depth of from 144 to 200 feet, each facing on a new fifty-foot street, will be sold for residence purposes. These lots are high and dry with perfect drainage. Thirty-seven and 60-100 acres adjoining will be sold in tracts of from two to five acres each for grazing or gardening purposes. This body of land has overflowed from high waters only twice in a period of twenty-five years and is very rich soil.

We propose to make this sale one of the most attractive ever offered the people of Central Kentucky. The proceeds of one lot will be given to the seven white churches of Paris, one lot free to the purchasers of lots, and one lot free to all, men or women over 21 years of age, who attend the sale and register their names. Dinner free on the grounds for everybody, while conveyances will take passengers to and from the sale.

This new addition is within three hundred yards of the Courthouse, and is only separated by Stoner creek from the rich vein of lead, zinc and copper ore that has been discovered on the Marsh farm and which is now being operated successfully, a shaft 9x12 feet having been sunk to a depth of 135 feet, from which more than five thousand tons of rich ore has been taken out. The company operating these mines are having surveyed and will shortly begin the building of a stretch of track to connect with the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, and expect to have installed by September 1 a separating plant of 100 tons daily capacity, and requiring one hundred men to operate.

The sanitary system of city sewerage passes through the property, while trains of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad stop within fifty yards of the residence. The sale will be without reserve or by-bid, and everything offered will be sold for what it brings. Persons attending the sale must register in order to participate in the drawing for the free lot, registering beginning at 8 o'clock a. m. During the hours of waiting the Elks Band will render a special musical program.

Amateur Night at the Grand.

For the first time during the life of the vaudeville theatre in this city, Messrs. McMahan & Jackson will tonight present to their patrons two amateur vaudeville features in the persons of Harry Saloshin of this city, and Louis Nessling, of Cincinnati.

The young men have arranged clever sketches and will compete for a prize that is being offered by the management for the best amateur act, and the decision will be left entirely with the audience as to which of the two, will, on their merits be entitled to the prize. Both are possessors of rare talent in this line and will appear at their best on this occasion.

Aside from this the bill which has proven satisfactory to all who have attended this week will be presented and is made up of Bence and Bence, who in a very lively sketch keep the audience in an uproar all the time; Minstrel Sam Harris, who has a laugh between every line of his monologue and a change of illustrated songs and moving pictures.

Ripe Peaches.

We have just received a nice lot of Florida Honey Peaches and they are certainly fine. J. E. CRAVEN.

Young Man Drowns.

Thomas Alexander, one of the best known young men of Danville, was drowned in Dick's river, Friday. He had been fishing with a friend, but was not seen to fall into the river.

Suit Against Night Riders Compromised.

The compromise which has been under discussion for the past week between the attorneys for the defendants and plaintiffs in the Hollowell damage suit against twenty-nine Caldwell county farmers was agreed to Monday.

All the defendants were at Princeton and arranged to meet the agreement, which was $15,000. Each side agreed to pay their part of the costs. This settles the other cases pending also, wiping the case from the United States civil docket.

Hollowell got judgment for $35,000 damages against them, alleging that they as night riders drove him from the State. He sued for $50,000. His first judgment was for $45,000.

Prominent Templar Seriously Hurt.

J. D. Dye, of Maysville, Junior Warden of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar, met with a distressing accident near Washington while on his way to join his wife at Sardis early Sunday morning. His horse became frightened at an automobile belonging to George Weber, of Mayslick and upset the carriage of which Mr. Dye and Gorden Suiser were occupants.

The vehicle fell over on Mr. Dye and dragged him over a barbed wire fence, lacerating his face and throat in a frightful manner. It required thirty-six stitches to close the wounds. The other occupant escaped unharmed. Mr. Dye's condition is serious, yet not necessarily fatal. He is one of the best known men in that section of the State.

Old Roman Drinking Vessels.

Tumblers resembling in shape and dimensions those employed to-day have been found in great numbers in Pompeii. They were made of gold, silver, glass, marble, agate and of precious stones.

TESTED AND PROVEN.

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Paris readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

Alex Talbott, living at 1800 Floc't So. Main street, Paris, Ky., says: "I can well praise Doan's Kidney Pills for the benefit I received from them. The statement I gave in favor of them in 1903 was true in every particular and holds good today. I have remained cured of the kidney trouble since and Doan's Kidney Pills, which I purchased at J. A. Wilson's drug store, deserve all the credit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Thaw Remains in Asylum.

Harry K. Thaw will not be released from the lunatic asylum. Both points brought up by Thaw's attorneys are decided against him. Justice Morschauer declares that Thaw is insane and should not be allowed at large. He also declares that the commitment to the lunatic asylum by Justice Dowling after the last trial of the case was entirely legal.

Given Up Hope.

Democratic leaders in Congress have given up all hope of passing the campaign contributions publicity bill and say that the Grumbacker rider has effectively killed the measure. Representative James, of Kentucky, in an interview, severely criticizes the Republicans for their failure to carry out their promise to enact publicity legislation.

Bad Attack of Dysentery Cured.

"An honorable citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the West. He was told that I kept it in stock and lots no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured," says M. J. Leach, druggist, of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.
